

Oxford Templeton Visiting Fellows to Latin America

Science, Philosophy and Theology in Latin America
Ian Ramsey Centre (IRC) for Science and Religion
University of Oxford

Fellowship application form

This form should be completed by the host scholar who invites the prospective Visiting Fellow, in order to apply for a grant to fund the visit. Please fill it in and submit it together with the rest of the application documents to latin.america@theology.ox.ac.uk before 15 April 2016, stating in the subject line: "Templeton Visiting Fellowship to Latin America - Application". Each section has a character limit and you will not be able to add more words beyond this limit. Contact us if you have any questions regarding your application or if you want advice on how to complete this form. These awards have been funded by a grant from the John Templeton Foundation.

Fellowship information

Proposed
visiting fellow

Home university

Position

Country

E-Mail

Name of host scholar

Host university

Faculty or Department

Country

E-Mail

Postal address

Fellowship
theme

Start date

End date

Summary

Please tell us in a short summary who is the proposed visiting fellow, with whom he/she will engage during the visit, and what he/she will do at your university (if the application is either in Spanish or Portuguese, the summary should be in English).

Limit your response to 300 words (c.2000 characters).

Statement

*Please describe the proposed activities to be carried out during the Fellowship (academic and public activities), the research interests of the group or groups with whom the Fellow will engage, and how the fellowship will enhance the host research group.
Limit your response to 1500 words (c. 9000 characters).*

Budget

Please itemise how you plan to spend the funds available for the Fellowship

Budget narrative

Please describe in a brief and simple narrative the items of the budget. Limit your answer to 250 words.

Dissemination plans

Please briefly explain, if applicable, your plans for disseminating the visit and the visitor's activities through the local media. Limit your answer to 300 words.